PANELIST MEGHAN COKELEY

MEGHAN COKELEY

DIRECTOR

OFFICE FOR THE NEW EVANGELIZATION
ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA

As the Director of the Office for the New Evangelization, Meghan's main responsibility is to guide and support the 200+ Catholic parishes of the Archdiocese in the area of adult faith formation and evangelization. Meghan has a B.A. in Theology and a Master of Theological Studies degree from the University of Notre Dame. She spent three years in doctoral studies in Theology at the Pontifical John Paul II Institute at the Catholic University of America.

In 2019, Meghan received the Benemerenti Medal from the Holy Father for her service to the Church. Before coming to Philadelphia in 2012, Meghan served in parish ministry as a Director of Religious Education and Catholic school religion teacher. She was born and raised in Somerville, NJ, and is an aunt to seven awesome nieces and nephews.

Fun fact: As a break from ministry, Meghan loves to read classic mystery stories like Sherlock Holmes, the Fr. Brown mysteries, and Agatha Christie. She is also an avid bird watcher and bike rider.
